

Report G-Men Solve Kidnap FEAR LYNCHING!

Hunt

For body of kidnaped James Bailey Cash, Jr., has spread to lakes and canals about his Princeton, Fla., home. One of the divers, Mrs. Dorothy Burry of Pompano Beach, is shown as she sought the boy's body in Mowry Canal.

INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE PHOTO

MIAMI, Fla., June 3—G-men have obtained a confession or proof that five-year-old Jimmy Cash, Jr., kidnap victim, was slain it was generally believed today.

Announcement of a partial solution of the crime, it was reported, was being withheld until the body is found to forestall an outbreak of mob violence.

This belief was predicated on the statement of Arthur G. Rutzen, in charge of the Miami office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Carefully weighing each word, Rutzen said:

"I will not say there has been a confession and neither will I say there has not been a confession.

"It is quite evident that such a statement would precipitate mob violence if made public before the body is found or the child returns safely."

Inasmuch as a denial of the confession would hardly precipitate mob action, the general interpretation was that a partial confession at least had been obtained from one of six persons now in the custody of the federal agents.

Rutzen refused a further statement when he was pressed for information.

Bulletin

TAVERNIER, Key Largo, Fla., June 3 (INS)—A hurried call for federal agents was sent out here today after a searching party, hunting five-year-old kidnaped James Bailey Cash, Jr., discovered what is believed to be an important clue.

Closest secrecy was clamped down on the "find," and there was no information given out as to the nature of the object, which reportedly was discovered in a "swamp pit" about a quarter of a mile south of this small town.

Immediately after the object was discovered, a call for G-men was sent to Princeton, the scene of the kidnaping.

After One 'Short Last' Year:

Duke, Wally Happy, Busy

ANTIBES, France, June 3 (AP)—The Duke and Duchess of Windsor celebrated their first wedding anniversary today, working together on their first real home.

They received two long-distance calls from London, believed to have been made by the Duke's mother, Queen Mary, and his brother, King George.

Following the calls, the Duke and Duchess left their hotel and drove to the chateau that is to be their home. They took a picnic lunch.

Between intervals of overseeing workmen at the chateau the couple spent much time on the beach—both hatless and wearing sandals. The duchess wore a white sports dress and the duke white flannel trousers with a blue shirt.

The ex-ruler of the British empire and the American-born woman for whom he gave up the throne were so engrossed in getting the Chateau de la Croe ready to live in that they planned no formal celebration.

The scheduled post another day of supervising alterations inside

DUCHESS OF WINDSOR

DUKE OF WINDSOR

and outside the comfortable chateau, which they have leased for two years.

The day was an extraordinary contrast to their wedding day, when the elaborate ceremony was followed by a sumptuous dinner to the throngs at the Chateau de Cande, near Tours.

The Windsors, who are living at the Grand Hotel while work on their home is being completed, drive their new American car a mile and a half each day to the chateau.

So far as known, no anniversary gifts were being exchanged.

The Windsors are seeing only a few old friends here, sticking to the "simple life" of the Riviera. So far, the only member of a servant staff they have engaged is the gardener of Sir Pomeroy Burton, American-born British subject of whom they leased the chateau.

The extensive grounds of the chateau are among its main attractions for the pair, who are practical gardeners.

As soon as workmen vacate the upper rooms they will start bringing in furniture, now in the Antibes freight yard.

Much of it is the Windsors' personal household goods and things the duchess stored when she left London during the first days of the December, 1936, future in Britain, which was climaxed by Windsor's dramatic abdication on December 10 to marry the "woman I love."

Nazist-British Hate Revealed

By KARL H. VON WIEGAND

Dean of American War Correspondents

(Copyright, 1938, by International News Service)

BERLIN, June 3—Emerging from the false German-Czech war scare of ten days ago I find today the beginning of a new and far more ominous potential menace to peace looming in Europe.

It lies in the rapidly growing conviction in high Nazi circles that Britain is fundamentally hostile toward Germany, antagonistic to the growth in power of the Third Reich, and unfriendly to any and every move Adolf Hitler makes.

So strong and so bitter is this feeling that in some quarters it is hinted Hitler may eventually feel himself compelled to denounce and terminate the Anglo-German naval pact.

LIMITS HITLER NAVY

This pact, concluded by Foreign Secretary Joachim von Ribbentrop, limits Germany not to build beyond 35 per cent of British naval tonnage.

Some German newspapers in big headlines splashed across the front pages charge the official British secret intelligence service deliberately started the war scare by launching false reports of the movements of German troops with the intention of invading Czechoslovakia.

But for the restraining hand of Hitler, who tenaciously adheres to his doctrine that the basis of community interests lies with the Anglo-Saxon races and, curiously enough, orders Propaganda Minister Paul Goebbels himself to soft pedal, the German press most likely would sound the old hate song toward England.

OLD FRENCH FEUD

The traditional German-French feud is completely in the background.

In allegedly starting the war scare, "trying to pin on Germany another war guilt so Britain could shine before the world as a valiant guardian of peace," those influential Nazi circles profess to see in England irreconcilable unfriendliness to every German move, even where it does not touch British interests.

This conviction, of course, is calling forth a mental attitude in those quarters not dissimilar from the state of German minds for the three years preceding the outbreak of the World War when Britain became alarmed at Germany's growing navy, economic, political and military power.

Many More Die In Canton Raid

HONGKONG, June 3 (AP)—Japanese bombing planes killed 50 persons in a Canton textile factory today and caused a great loss of life among household dwellers along the Canton river.

The factory was crowded with workers when two bombs struck the building.

The attackers also bombed the vicinity of Taishata railway station where many refugees were encamped.

The station was not hit, however, and the raiders departed after 55 minutes.

(The raid was another of the series that began Saturday in which a total of 1000 civilians were estimated to have been killed and 1500 wounded.)

Two alleged "hotbeds" of Communist literature, one in Boston, the other in close proximity to Harvard University in Cambridge, became subjects of scrutiny by investigators, following the report of the special commission on "isms in Massachusetts today.

Public hearings on the report of the commission by the legislative committee on legal affairs are to begin next Wednesday.

Named in addition to the two bookshops are various alleged "Red" publications, principal of which, it is stated, is "Science and Society: A Maximal Quarterly."

"William T. Parry, former assistant at Harvard University, is the managing editor," the report says.

Parry also, according to the report, is director of the Communist Progressive Labor School in Boston.

HEADQUARTERS NAMED

Headquarters of the magazine, the report states, are in the Holvoke Book Shop, 19 Dunster street, Cambridge, one of the two bookshops named as Communist propaganda centers.

The other, the report alleges, is the Progressive Book Shop at 8 Beach street, Boston.

"Communist witnesses before this commission maintained the Progressive Book Shop was a private enterprise, dealing in Communist publications but having no organizational relationship to the Communist party of Massachusetts or of the district," the commission's report admits.

But—

"The commission believes this testimony to be false."

Named in the report in connection with the "Science and Society" magazine is a long list of editors and contributing editors, many designated as having, or having had, university or college affiliations. This list includes:

EDITORS

Edwin Berry Burgum, New York University.

V. J. McGill, Hunter College.

Margaret Schlaugh, New York

University.

Bernhard J. Stern, Columbia University.

CONTRIBUTING EDITORS

J. W. Alexander, Institute for Advanced Study, Princeton.

Francis Birch, Harvard.

Louis B. Boudin, New York City.

Theodore B. Brameld, Adelphi.

Dorothy Brewster, Columbia; Ralph J. Bunche, Howard; Kenneth Burke, New York City; Addison Cutler, Fiske; E. Franklin Frazier, Howard; Louis Harap, Harvard; Granville Hicks, Grafton, N. Y.; Eugene C. Holmes, Howard; Lee Huberman, New York City; Corinne Lamont, New York City.

Oliver Larkin, Smith; Robert Moss Lovett, University of Chicago; Bronckus Mitchell, Johns Hopkins; Palmer Mood, Huntington Library; Brooks Otis, Hobart; Herbert J. Strunk, Massachusetts Institute of Technology; Paul M. Sweezy, Harvard; Genevieve Taggard, Sarah Lawrence; Louis Weisner, Hunter.

"MUST" READING

In addition to the two bookshops, the commission's report states, "every branch and unit of the Communist party in the Commonwealth of the Young Communist League, and the various 'Workers' Clubs' and other satellite organizations, each maintains 'literature agents,' whose duty it is to provide their membership with Communist publications.

"Certain reports and publications, such as instructions issued by the Central Committee U. S. A., or by the Communist International, comprise 'must' reading."

Nobles for Kennedy Girls?

Matchmakers Busy After Embassy Ball

ROSEMARY KENNEDY

LONDON, June 3 (INS)—Noblemen and royalty by the half dozen rallied round last night when Rosemary and Kathleen Kennedy, daughters of the American ambassador, "came out," and today Anglo-American society wondered if the attractive girls might not alter the bachelor state of a couple of the eligibles.

Beaming, Ambassador Joseph P. Kennedy was host at one of the largest parties of the London season.

Among the potential husbands who danced with the Misses Kennedy were Prince Frederick of Prussia, the Earl of Chichester, Earl of Craven, Viscount Duncannon, Earl MacDuff, Viscount Newport, Baron von Flotow and David Rockefeller.

Likewise a dancer, but not an eligible bachelor, was the Duke of Kent, brother of King George. He arrived late, and danced with Kathleen and Mrs. Kennedy.

Harry Richman, American flying stage and night club star, sang, "Thanks for the Memory," for the guests, and Ambrose's band, one of the most popular in England, played.

Anne Clark Bride Gown All Frilly

Pastel wedding in a town as neat as a pin.

The news leaked out today on what Anne Lindsay Clark and her bridesmaids will wear at her marriage June 18 to John Roosevelt, youngest son of the President.

Anne is setting a new fashion for June brides.

There will be plenty of frills instead of streamlining.

The motif is fantasy instead of the exotic.

Anne's wedding costume, designed in Paris, made in Boston, is pure white with quantities of tulle.

Her bridesmaids will wear blues and pinks in pastel shades.

Anne's wedding dress has been completed. She has had her last fitting. It has been in the process since last February. Her dressmaker made a special trip to Paris to select the creation.

Boston dressmakers report women wedding guests, learning it is to be a pastel wedding, have ordered their gowns in pastel shades, too. Many have ordered English garden party type costumes of gay printed chiffons and large picture hats.

Meanwhile, Nahant has been scrubbing, polishing and painting in preparation for the wedding and the arrival of its chief guests, President and Mrs. Roosevelt.

Motherhood Vacations?

ST. LOUIS, June 3 (AP)—Fifteen-year vacations as a reward for motherhood are advocated by Mrs. Harry H. Woodring, wife of the Secretary of War.

Herself the mother of three small children, Mrs. Woodring indicated that women should have time to return to their careers after they have reared their offspring.

Since her marriage in 1933, she has abandoned—at least temporarily—her career of portrait painting.

"But the fact I have that career in reserve when my children are grown is of intense satisfaction to me," she said.

"I'll have to start over, of course, but I'll be a much better painter in the end, because I have taken time out for motherhood."

Potash and Plaster Don't Mix if Red!

The best way to convert her husband to Communism, thought Mrs. Lillian Potash, 26, of Spencer street, Dorchester, was to flavor his beef stew with plaster of paris.

In Suffolk Probate Court today Potash, 26, a mild-mannered, puzzled American, told Judge Mahoney "something came over" his wife when she joined the Communist party. He asked for a divorce on grounds of extreme cruelty—and got it.

He left her on Armistice Day. First, he testified, she deluged him with leaflets and demanded he attend Communist meetings with her.

When he refused she flavored the stew with plaster of paris. When this "putsch" failed to win him to the cause, she hurled dishes and punched his nose.

He added: "She brought a lot of funny looking men into the house and called them 'comrades.' One night she filled the house and I had to go to my mother's home to sleep."

'Dole' Mother Hurls Birth Control Charge

A Concord welfare agent suggested that she go to a birth control clinic in Boston. Mrs. John Muscato, "dole" mother of four, asserted today.

She alleged the birth control advice was given her by Mrs. Edith M. Foote, social worker for the Concord welfare department.

SHOWDOWN NEAR
"Mrs. Foote told me I wasn't strong enough to have more children, the town couldn't afford the expense of them and there were birth control clinics in Boston. If my doctor or clergyman wouldn't help me," Mrs. Muscato charged.

Her statement was one of several new developments today in what loomed as a birth control "showdown" in Concord between mothers on relief, members of the clergy and welfare authorities.

Accused by several "dole" mothers of urging them to have no more children, Mrs. Foote said the mothers, not she, brought up the subject of birth control.

"All I ever told them was to see their doctor or their clergyman," Mrs. Foote asserted.

"Then a certain clergyman came to me and asked me not to send any more mothers to him for advice about birth control, so after that I made it a rule not to discuss child birth at all with mothers on relief."

The "birth control advice" issue was brought into the open by Mrs. Theobald Mosen, Concord mother of four.

"NO MORE BABIES"

She charged that Mrs. Foote advised her to have no more babies while on relief, recommending steps she should take toward that end.

Mrs. Mosen, in a further complaint about welfare conditions in Concord, asserted that two of her children came down with pneumonia, last winter, because the town refused them medical attention.

A number of other mothers on relief were noted as joining Mrs. Mosen in complaining that Mrs. Foote has been "too noisy" in supervising their food purchases, "telling everybody just what they could and couldn't put on the table."

Chilten R. Cabot, Concord welfare commission chairman, today characterized charges against Mrs. Foote and the welfare board as "deliberate distortions by disgruntled persons."

"What started all this trouble," he said, was the fact that we have refused to give welfare cash to families on relief.

"Because some persons abused their privileges, we were obliged to adopt a system of giving orders for food, fuel, rent and medical attention, instead of money."

"There has been no strict regulation of what mothers could obtain with their food orders. But we had to ban a few such luxuries as candy, cigarettes and plum puddings."

FIERD FROM WPA

"So far as the alleged giving of birth control advice to dole mothers is concerned, my own investigation has convinced me that such charges are unfounded."

"Mrs. Mosen's husband's grievance dates back to a time when he had to be fired from a WPA job because he wouldn't work."

"He was on a woodchopping project and could have taken home all the fuel his family needed, but he refused to do so."

The Mosen's family's alleged grievances were also discussed today by Mrs. Foote.

"The reason the Mosen children got pneumonia," she said, "was not lack of medical attention."

"Neighbors told me Mrs. Mosen let the children play outdoors in the cold and wet and let them run around outdoors barefooted and without proper clothing."

Watchdog, But 'In Reverse'

Dick, who bears his name, was pretty much in disgrace today with his Lynn owner and with police.

The German police dog has been left nightly to guard the Lobster Pot, in Broad street, and after the place was broken into early today not only cigars and cigarettes were missing, but so was the dog.

Some hours later police arrested James E. Hogan, 32, at his home in Neptune street and charged him with breaking, entering and larceny in the night time.

Dick, police said, was found asleep under Hogan's back porch. In Lynn court, Hogan was held in $1500 for hearing Thursday.

In the Lobster Pot, Dick was held in captivity.

'Ribbon' Jury Probes Funds Of Sportsmen

Archie Engle of Revere, declared by Assistant Attorney-General Maurice Goldman to have been treasurer of Revere's closed Ruby Club, was the last witness heard by the "blue ribbon" grand jury before the Revere probe adjourned until next week.

When the "blue ribbon" resume on Monday morning they will sit in new quarters, Room 402 at the courthouse, because the regular grand jury begins sittings on that day.

The Revere probe, it was learned, meanwhile, took a new turn today with investigators switching attention to incomes of certain well known sportsmen operating in that city.

At the same time a number of witnesses were reported as anxious to change the testimony they have given in the probe of Revere racketeers and racketeers.

Witnesses before the grand jury today included John Prokus of Revere, William C. Carroll, in the electrical business in Revere, and Joseph Pearson, likewise in the electrical business.

Carroll, who testified before the grand jury previously, returned to give additional testimony, the attorney-general's office stated.

Shortly before noon there was a recess, during which Assistant Attorneys General J. R. Dwyer and M. M. Goldman and Assistant District Attorney G. H. Byrne conferred.

Mexico Ban On Catholic Persecution

MEXICO CITY, June 3 (INS)—President Lazaro Cardenas today formally decreed religious liberty for Mexico, declaring the Federal government "respects all religious creeds."

Taking cognizance of oppression of Catholics in the state of Tabasco, the president ordered authorities there to permit churches to reopen and to repeal unconstitutional local laws regulating religious worship.

"All authorities," the President said, "have express instructions to abstain from any persecution whatsoever. The right of worship is legitimate."

Dying? Then It'll Be in Jail

When a doctor told Lieutenant James R. Johnson, CCC disbursing officer at the Army Base, he had an incurable illness and was marked for death, he determined the rest of his life would be fast and merry.

This was revealed today by federal officials as told to them by Lieutenant Johnson but the doctor had been in error as to time.

Already with that period elapsed, the reserve army officer heard Federal Judge George C. Sweeney indicate his belief in the diagnosis by sentencing Johnson to two years' jail to be served concurrently, on forgery and uttering charges.

Lieutenant Johnson had pleaded guilty to indictments charging embezzlement of $16,432.18 in Government funds through forging names to checks for CCC workers.

Senate Relief Vote Delayed

WASHINGTON, June 3 (AP)—The Senate fight over the administration's $3,422,000,000 relief bill went into an extra round today.

Although administration forces had confidently expected a final vote last night, senators took so much time discussing controversial amendments that leaders left the debate unfinished and recessed.

They had just won—by two votes—a battle against an amendment by Senator Hatch (D-NM) to restrict political activities of WPA employees.

Anti-administration Democrats and Republicans lined up for the proposal, but Democratic Leader Barkley of Kentucky rallied 39 votes against it to 37 for.

The amendment would have required dismissal of any WPA administrative worker who used his authority or influence to interfere with a political convention, a primary or a general election.

"If we build up a system in which we can use funds out of the treasury to control the vote of the people," Hatch told the Senate, "then democracy is dead."

"This amendment," rejoined Barkley, "would take the federal employee and tie him to a tree, but it would leave the state employee free to roam at will."

The proposal was rejected after administration supporters, on a voice vote, tossed out an amendment to restrict PWA power activities.

That amendment, advanced by the appropriations committee and bearing the enthusiastic endorsement of the private utilities industry, was opposed by President Roosevelt.

The Chamber beat down 56 to 17 a proposal by Senator Lodge (R.) of Massachusetts, to add a half billion to the $1,425,000,000 WPA appropriation and to strike out "pump priming" features of the bill.

Roosevelt Labor Study in Britain Spurned by CIO

WASHINGTON, June 3 (AP)—President Roosevelt announced today that a special presidential commission would be sent to England this summer to clear up what he considered to be misinformation in this country about the workings of the British Trade Union Act.

This act has sometimes been held up by business interests as a model of legislation the United States might write in order to define the proper activities of unions. Whether the President intends to apply the findings of his commission in any positive way was not brought out.

In discussing the purpose of the study at his press conference he said it would have nothing to do with the Wagner Labor Relations Act. He explained that the purpose would be to end misunderstandings of the law.

He withheld the names of the commission members he has selected, but a letter written by John L. Lewis and released at the conference disclosed that the Committee for Industrial Organization had been invited to have representation.

Lewis, the letter disclosed, first agreed to participation, but objected strenuously today after he had read published reports that one purpose of the study would be to get information to be used in modifying the Wagner Labor Act.

"The Committee for Industrial Organization cannot sanction such an enterprise," Lewis wrote, "nor permit its representative to serve on such a commission. It will oppose amendment or modification of the Wagner act."

Cop's Tragedy— Kills His Pal

NEW YORK, June 3 (AP)—In the darkness of a Brooklyn candy store, two policemen fought early today with a man who was slashing at them with a hunting knife.

Cornered, with his back to a telephone booth, the suspected burglar struggled furiously as Patrolman John Deaver, 37, gun in hand, withheld his fire and closed in heedless of the flashing blade.

"I'll get him from behind!" shouted Deaver's partner, Patrolman James D. Fisher, 33.

Both officers lunged. The unknown's knife slashed across Deaver's gun hand. The pistol exploded. Deaver heard a groan. He overpowered the man, handcuffed him and turned on the lights. Deaver's veteran partner—slain by the involuntary firing of Deaver's revolver.

Heart-broken by the tragedy, Deaver was officially exonerated of the shooting, which took his partner's life.

Parted 25 Years, Brother, Sister Meet

WOONSOCKET, R. I., June 3 (AP)—Mrs. Corrine Shaylor, 83, of Woonsocket, and her brother, Arthur Lacoste, 72, of Winnipeg, Canada, had not seen each other for 25 years.

Today he appeared at her home unannounced. Mrs. Shaylor nearly swooned. He believed she was dead and had come to see nieces and nephews.

all summer!

When it's 75 degrees

Too warm for your 15 oz. woolens. Not steamy enough for a summer suit. But right down the alley for a Carolina Worsteds — Bond's new "in-between" middleweight! A special weave that brings you cool comfort lacking in regular heavyweights. A worsted with more body, and press-holding quality, than you get in summer lightweights. The clothing treat of the year!

CAROLINA WORSTEDS do the trick

When it's 85 degrees

The old "fire-ball" puts on the pressure. You put on a Carolina Worsteds, give your body a chance to breathe, in a suit that's wrinkle-proof and weather-proof. You can write your own ticket when it comes to color or pattern. Get next to one of these middleweight champions, today or tomorrow. It'll keep you in good shape, and good spirits, all summer.

Hunt Suspect In Syracuse Trunk Slaying

SYRACUSE, N. Y., June 3 (INS)

—Police were engaged in a state-wide search for an unemployed telegraph operator in connection with the trunk murder of 38-year-old Mrs. Laura Krenrich, attractive beauty parlor operator.

Mrs. Krenrich's battered body, bound in blankets and ropes and with a bible at her feet, was found stuffed into a cedar chest in a closet of her home here.

Police are searching for Larry Gassney, also known as Larry Gough, who had been living at the Krenrich home, according to neighbors.

A coroner's examination showed Mrs. Krenrich had been dead since Sunday, and listed a fractured skull as the cause of death. The dead woman last was seen alive on Saturday night by patrons of her beauty parlor.

Relatives said they telephoned Mrs. Krenrich on Sunday but were told by Gassney, who answered, that she was out of town.

Nathan Bronstein, a furniture dealer, told police he had been called by Gassney to the Krenrich home Tuesday and was asked about buying the furniture. When he came to the bedroom, Bronstein said, Gassney stood between him and the closet and refused to let him enter, saying:

"No, no. There is nothing in here."

Reynolds Battles To Hold His Seat

CHARLOTTE, N. C., June 3 (AP)

—One of the quietest campaigns in years goes to a decision of the voters tomorrow. They will choose between Senator Robert R. Reynolds and Frank W. Hancock for the Democratic nomination for United States senator.

Hancock gave up his seat in the House to oppose Reynolds, seeking a second term. Each predicted today he would poll an overwhelming majority.

London's Honourables March Here

In spite of drizzling rain, the oldest military units of Great Britain and the United States marched together today in resplendent uniforms to start the five-day celebration of the 300th anniversary of Boston's Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company.

Beginning on the lawn of the New Ocean House, Swampscott, 33 members of London's Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company passed in review before Major Francis S. Cummings, U. S. A., then proceeded to North Station where they joined ranks with their American cousins and paraded to Faneuil Hall.

In parade formation, led by their commanding officer, Major J. A. Hill, the Britishers were loudly cheered as Colonel Charles Cahill, commander of the Boston Ancients, pinned medals on the visitors to commemorate their visit.

Following a luncheon, both companies marched to the State House where they were received by Governor Hurley in the Hall of Flags. From the State House they marched to City Hall where they were greeted by Mayor Tobin.

Tonight the British artillerymen, whose organization is 401 years old, will be guests of honor at a ball at the First Corps Cadets Armory.

Somerville Man Held in Theft

John J. Crosby, 38, Broadway, Somerville, was arraigned in East Cambridge district court today, charged with being a member of the gang that on May 15 stole two trucks containing $40,000 merchandise from the terminal of the Lenox Transportation Co. in Cambridge.

Two other alleged members of the gang are being held. Crosby pleaded not guilty and was held in $5,000 bonds.

The Roaming Reporter

THE QUESTION:

One Great N. E. Furniture Institution believes that what this country needs is more goods sold, more men at work, more factories on full time. It believes that the only way to accomplish this is to offer lower prices than ever before to start people buying. It is sacrificing normal profit to accomplish this purpose. What is your feeling about this means of bringing back prosperity?

(The Question Refers to Kane's Drive to Lower Prices)

THE ANSWERS:

Edgar Brooks, Salesman of Melrose: To my mind, this constitutes the basis of the right idea for the return of prosperity. If a movement such as this was to receive the cooperation of all factors in business it would not be long before the wheels of industry were humming.

C. G. Hookway, Insurance Broker of Dorchester, Mass.: I do believe that this drive, if started and followed by other companies, would more than do a great deal to promote the return of prosperity. A surge of buying would start money rolling and is just what is sorely needed in these times.

Mrs. R. R. Richardson, housewife, Boston: I have always been under the impression that the average woman is truly "bargain conscious," and that is sufficient to make me believe that much could be accomplished in the way of better business if everyone made a special effort to offer just a little more value for your money.

Mrs. R. R. Richardson

Tom Downey, clerk, Jamaica Plain: It stands to reason that lowering prices should move goods off the shelves. To replace these, men must be put to work. I truly believe that if "big business" was less selfish and took lower profits that the resulting lower prices would move goods and put men back to work.

KANE'S Expresses its thanks to . . .

The people listed above and to the people of N. E. whose support is enabling KANE'S to sell more goods and help put men at work.

KANE'S will CONTINUE to sacrifice profits . . .

To blast away inaction with lower prices that will move goods and keep factories busy.

N. Y. Harbor 'Sit' Strike Ended

NEW YORK, June 3.—A sit-down strike by harbor workers in New York City ended today after a 24-hour protest. The workers, who had been out since Monday, returned to work after a meeting with the employers. The strike was called by the International Longshoremen's Association (ILA) and the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America (UBA). The workers had been demanding better wages and working conditions. The employers had offered a 10% wage increase, but the workers had rejected it. The sit-down strike was one of the most successful in the history of the labor movement. The workers had managed to shut down the harbor for 24 hours, which had caused a major disruption in the city's economy. The strike ended with a new contract that provided for a 15% wage increase and better working conditions.

'Insiders' Holding to Sidelines

By HUGH E. BRADSHAW Financial Editor

Several "insiders" corporation executives and large stockholders are holding to the sidelines today in the aftermath of a recent market rally. The market today was a study in contrasts. The rally was a surprise to many, but the insiders were not. They were waiting for a better time to enter the market. The market today was a study in contrasts. The rally was a surprise to many, but the insiders were not. They were waiting for a better time to enter the market.

STATE ST. NOTEBOOK

Local brokerage circles see a possible change in senatorial statements regarding the use of relief funds for home-to municipalities for construction of power plants. It concerns those asserting that the administration does not intend to appropriate funds unless a bid to purchase, in good faith, private existing plant has been made. What is good faith and who is to judge the worth of a bid are the questions asked.

LIBRARY SIMILAR

The world wide wave of curtailment by raw material producers is hitting a temporary price stimulus. This applies equally to shoes and commodities as well as the affected products themselves. However, such trends are usually expected under similar conditions and should not be looked on as inaugurating something permanent.

Haney Sees 'Direct Relief' As Only Hope

By LEWIS HANEY (Professor of Economics, New York University)

NEW YORK, June 3 (Yesterday) I write about the importance of direct relief to the economy.

Today this point is emphasized by the news. A single report is coming down for a month that thousands of men are out of employment. Mr. Roosevelt has just announced that commercial banks are opening at a rate of about one per cent of the total number of banks.

In the second case the government has not been able to collect a single dollar of taxes. When the government was in power, it was not able to collect a single dollar of taxes. When the government was in power, it was not able to collect a single dollar of taxes.

In the third case the government has not been able to collect a single dollar of taxes. When the government was in power, it was not able to collect a single dollar of taxes. When the government was in power, it was not able to collect a single dollar of taxes.

As long as the government has not been able to collect a single dollar of taxes, it is not able to collect a single dollar of taxes. When the government was in power, it was not able to collect a single dollar of taxes.

BULLET PROVES FATAL

RUTLAND, Vt., June 3 - William H. Herrick, Jr., 42, retired farmer, was dead today after living for two days with a 22 caliber revolver bullet in his brain.

I WAS A NAZI WIFE!

UNCENSORED

An American Girl Who Married a Nazi Reveals Her Own Startling True Story!

I SAY GOOD-BYE TO MY NATIVE LAND. When I set sail with the gay and charming German youth I had married in this age, I looked forward to a happy future in my husband's beloved Fatherland. How could I foresee the harrowing experiences before me, which I have now disclosed in True Story Magazine for July?

I AM INSULTED BY MY HUSBAND'S FRIEND. That night when the drunken trooper stalked into my bedroom—that's only one of the incidents that made my life a nightmare in this foreign land. I have set down everything just as it happened, frankly and fully, in July True Story Magazine

I AM HORRIFIED AT NAZI BRUTALITIES. I had dreamed of the romantic Germany of legend, but I was rudely awakened to what was actually going on behind the scenes as I gazed in horror at spectacles of brutality and intolerance like this, which I have described in detail in July True Story

I AM ACCUSED OF MURDER. Where would this woman stop in her fiendish design to destroy my husband's love and to take my baby away from me? How could I escape from Naziland? I think you will shudder, as I still shudder, at the astonishing climax to my true, book-length story, in July True Story

Don't Miss THIS BOOK-LENGTH TRUE STORY, "I WAS A NAZI WIFE" IN JULY True Story Out Today!

ALSO IN JULY TRUE STORY — — REVELATIONS ABOUT THOSE AMAZING ROOSEVELTS!

DOES THE PRESIDENT notice how his wife dresses? Who does he notice? Is he a thoughtful husband? How much has Mrs. Roosevelt influenced the President politically? See July True Story.

WHY HAVE THERE BEEN two White House divorces? What is the truth about the divorces of Elliott and Anna Roosevelt? Are their present marriages happy ones? See July True Story.

WHO REALLY RULES the Roosevelt family? Is there a mother-in-law problem in the White House? What did the President's mother reply when asked about a breach in the Roosevelt family? See July True Story.

Sounds Silly, But It's True

ELIZABETH, N. J., June 3 (AP) — The Schanker family awaited the arrival of a game warden today to save them from the attacks of a pair of blue jays. "It sounds foolish," Mrs. Morris Schanker admitted, "but it's true, so I was afraid to go out of the house."

She pointed to a swollen lip, the result of an attack by one of the blue jays who were angered when a cat ate two baby birds, which fell out of the nest.

Flaming Youth

Like Their Drink

WASHINGTON, June 3 (AP) — A group of young men, known as the "Flaming Youth," were named by the American Youth Congress today. The group, which is made up of 15 and 20-year-olds, is said to be the most "flaming" group of young men in the country. They are known for their "flaming" behavior, which includes drinking and partying. About a fifth of the group were generally opposed to the Congress.

Boston College received its charter three-quarters of a century ago on April 1, 1863, but its actual foundation extends back to 1848, when Reverend John McCleary purchased the Hancock schoolhouse with the intention of starting a Jesuit college. Inability to obtain instructors and lack of adequate finances made it necessary to hold the plan in abeyance until 1852, when Father McCleary made another attempt, this time buying the O'Connell schoolhouse on Lancaster street from the city of Boston. Again it was impossible to obtain a faculty. Another four years elapsed until a larger lot on Laverett street was secured. Circumstances made it necessary to cancel the purchase, and turn the land back to the city.

"But a college does not live and breathe in stone halls alone and green campus; her life is inward, in the minds, the hearts, the earlier lofty aspirations and the later, perhaps small, but worthwhile accomplishments of her sons. She is wholly selfless; she exists in and for the fine things in the lives of those whom she has fostered. These we cannot record, but we do not forget them. And with the past as her inspiration, we are confident that the College will continue to grow and draw nearer the ideal sketched for her at her second birth."

Law School Has Merited National Recognition

By WILLIAM J. O'KEEFE

Dean Boston College Law School

Boston College Law School has been selected by the American Bar Association as one of the nation's best law schools. This recognition is the highest honor that can be bestowed upon a law school and is a reflection of the high quality of the school's instruction and its graduates.

The American Bar Association, which is the national organization of lawyers, has a committee that annually selects the best law schools in the country. This year, Boston College Law School was ranked first among all law schools in the New England region.

The school's success is due to the high caliber of its faculty and the dedication of its students. The school has a long history of excellence and has produced many notable graduates who have gone on to become successful lawyers and judges.

In November, 1932, the American Bar Association held its annual meeting in New York City. At this meeting, the committee announced the results of its selection process. Boston College Law School was named as one of the nation's best law schools, a recognition that is well-deserved.

This honor has always been one of the school's proudest achievements. It is a testament to the school's commitment to excellence and to the high standards of its instruction. The school's graduates are proud of this recognition and are confident that they are well-prepared to face the challenges of the legal profession.

The school's success is a reflection of the support and encouragement of its faculty, students, and alumni. It is a testament to the power of hard work and dedication to achieve excellence.

Fordham to Honor B. C. President

Rev. William J. McGarry, S. J., president of Boston College, will be honored by Fordham University on June 10. The honor is a recognition of his leadership and the high standards of his administration.

COOK ELECTRICALLY...There is no better way!

NEW DELIGHT IN MEALS!
NEW ECONOMY IN COOKING!

You too can save time and money and food by cooking electrically. Electric ranges are equipped with automatic timers which mean shorter kitchen hours, longer leisure hours. You save money because part of your cooking is done with the heat turned off — so well are these ovens insulated! And you save on food too, since seal-tight electric ovens prevent loss of weight in meats and vegetables by evaporation. Natural, nutritious food juices are not cooked away.

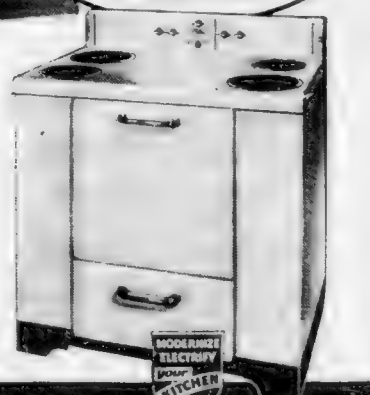

Don't postpone it any longer. Come in now and inspect one of our modern electric ranges. You will always thank your stars that you did.

The first group of people who reported the sighting of the Sasquatch in Eastern America were the Indians. In 1792, a young Indian boy named Red Jacket told his white captors that he had seen a large, hairy creature with a long tail in the woods near his village. This was the first recorded sighting of the Sasquatch in North America.

Boston College Apace With Needs of America

By ALEXANDER BRIN.

Editor, and Publisher of The Jewish Advocate.

Member of Massachusetts Advisory Board of Education

*It affords me great pleasure to extend justly due felicitations to Boston College on the occasion of its 75th anniversary.

"As a member of the State Advisory Board of Education, I count it a unique privilege to keep in close touch with our educational movement. In visiting our colleges I come home with the feeling that the finest representatives of the people of Missouri are here."

In some spheres of scholarship Boston College has a tradition and offers opportunities comparable with the best anywhere. What I sincerely admire and appreciate is the fine spirit of reasonableness and fairness which prevails in this institution. We well know that not only in many European universities but also in the best of our American institutions of higher learning is America lacking the true spiritual attitude toward life. Bigotry and prejudice are also the common phenomena in academic circles.

MAINTAINS TRADITIONS

Boston College is a center of learning where the best traditions of academic freedom and intellectual Catholicity prevail. The largeness of our intellectual life is attested by the spiritual depth of its classes. It has distinguished itself in the intellectual world not merely because of the ability of its students, but because of the quality of the spirit which the college engenders. If education neglects the spiritual dimensions of the human mind, it fails to meet the needs of America. It is a powerful foe of the forces that are subversion of American principles of freedom and religious liberty. It is a champion of the student's passion in this crucial hour of world history. It has clearly asserted its position as an American institution, upholding the standards of democracy and radiating the light of American prestige and truth. It is a center of light and learning, an intellectual haven where "such knowledge as is a mighty influence and a great

FRATERNITY OF INVENTIONS

During the last years of existence, Boston College has seen many changes take place in this world. Popular education has trembled drastically in these last years. It has seen truly an era of inventions. The automobile, the airplane, the wireless radio, and the telephone have revolutionized life. Finally, it has accomplished wonders that were unthinkable of. Boston College has kept pace with the changes in preserving truth and intellectual integrity. It stands under the law, liberty with reason, independence with a high sense of duty and responsibility as a dominant motive it has made a noteworthy contribution to clear thinking.

One of the hallmarks of Boston College has been the courage to face higher life as a vital force in preparing men for the great risks of civilization. The founders and the leaders today believe in the values of reverence and its association with our physical and spiritual life. Without morality free institutions cannot be long maintained. Intelligent people today demand attention to the spiritual as well as to the physical being. Today the most prominent of conflicts exists in how to lead us to point out the over-emphasis on physical science and the complete neglect of the social sciences, as in a large measure responsible for the sorry state of our world civilization. Today progressive educationalists condemn the inadequacy of our educational system as being too machine-like in its methods and too little human in its application.

Much of the work of our centers of learning must be directed towards straight, clear and logical thinking. Education and religion are two of the best barometers of true and lasting values.

CULTURE PRESERVED

"Boston College is determined that the light of culture may be extinguished in Europe shall be sheltered by heaven and untrepid souls in America who will preserve the torch of learning and the spiritual values which make for character, against the forces of reactions and absolutism for intelligent transmits

I greet the Diamond Jubilee with joy, and trust that the teachers and teachers of this college will be permitted to realize their hopes and ambitions for the future. The various presidents who have led the destinies of the college from its inception in 1863 to the present day are especially deserving of our gratitude and appreciation, as the progress of Boston College is due in large measure to their wisdom, their guidance and mechanical success.

Gov. Andrew A True Friend of Boston College

Need for More Boston Colleges

Two members of the Boston College Board of Trustees, the Honorable William J. Bennett and the Honorable William J. Bennett, Jr., have been elected to the Board of Trustees of the Boston College of Business Administration.

"In reference to the Boston College Board of Trustees, I would like to express my appreciation to the faculty of Boston College."

"Well might the people of Boston be proud of this great institution of learning and the effort of families in making it possible for them to secure a college education."

"The success of this institution is due to the great leadership and foresight of His Eminence, William Cardinal O'Connell. The creditable part of it is that we have not more Boston colleges in the United States to combat the un-American and un-Christian doctrines propounded by the many 'bears' that are trying to nullify the law as set forth in our United States and Massachusetts constitutions."

Picture of a Man SAVING MONEY

His car runs like a song, costs less to operate, is a pleasure to drive. Here's what he uses, and why—

JENNEY Solvenized Gasoline dissolves gum—the carbon binder—and so softens the carbon formation that it can be blown out the exhaust. Result is that valve and ring action are improved—compression goes up—gasoline vapor that used to leak away is saved so less gasoline is needed.

Gasoline dollars are saved, and in many cases costly valve and ring repair jobs are prevented.

Jenney Solvenoil—the Extreme Pressure Motor Oil—is 100% pure Pennsylvania oil improved by a patented process. Because it is more oily and has a tougher film which clings to metal, Solvenoil reduces friction and heat, and so reduces wear.

Solvenoil also resists sludge, which makes it last longer. With Solvenoil you'll add less between changes and you'll save up to $25 a year in repairs.

Tens of thousands of New Englanders use this easy way to save money and keep their cars running smoothly. Jenney Solvenized and Solvenoil cost more but they serve you better.

Curb the Meddlers

The Editor Says:

Federal action against individuals and agencies that are recruiting Boston young men for a war with the Red army in Spain is demanded by the Special Investigative Commission which is investigating subversive organizations.

The Commission believes that persons who refuse to support the United States Government's determination to keep out of foreign wars should be CURBED and EXPOSED.

There is no person living American in the land who will not agree that neutrality laws ought to apply to EVERYONE. There is no person living American in the land who will not agree that the laws which give the followers of Stalin or the advocates of Lenin a SPECIAL PRIVILEGE to meddle in the affairs of this country should be enforced.

Any man or woman who would involve us in another world war would cause the deaths of thousands of our young men and women, and there is no one who would not agree that such a man or woman should be CURBED and EXPOSED.

Our neutrality laws MUST BE ENFORCED. Our wish to see our country at peace MUST BE REAL.

THE KENNEDY FAMILY'S popularity in Britain is not a new thing. It is a thing that will never change. In England, the Kennedy family is known for an American ambassador. It is a thing that is known to the United States embassy in London. It is a thing that is known to the British government. It is a thing that is known to the British people. It is a thing that is known to the British press. It is a thing that is known to the British public.

NEW TAXES are suggested by New Hampshire's 12th constitutional convention, recently in session. Delegates favor graduated income and inheritance taxes and excise levies on luxury and commodity sales.

For the time, the proposals now must hurdle a two-thirds vote of the voters in the state in November. Only by the popular consent can they become a part of the constitution.

One thing is certain; our New Hampshire neighbors will not act hastily. They have before them the experience of other States which adopted income, luxury and sales levies as temporary measures and then woke up to the fact that they were as permanent as hills of solid granite.

The Political Parade

By GEORGE ROTHWELL BROWN

WASHINGTON, June 3.—THE President's determination to defeat in the primaries, with our waiting for election day, these Democratic reactionaries in Congress who have opposed their own convictions to his will is wholly consistent with Mr. Roosevelt's philosophy of government.

There is really no reason why the intended sacrifices should be being cast in the role of the burnt offering on the New Deal altar. They invited it.

Mr. Roosevelt, consciously or subconsciously, does not believe in the American form of government, that is to say, of a representative republic.

He does not believe, with Mr. Taft, who perhaps, among recent Presidents has best expressed the old-fashioned idea, that the executive constitutional function in legislation begins AFTER THE CONGRESS has submitted an act to him for his consideration and not BEFORE.

THE ROOT of the present controversy between Mr. Roosevelt and the Congress seems to be in the fact that the President conceives this Government to be a direct action democracy, not a representative republic.

Under this theory the President of the United States goes to the people with a program which may be indefinite, very vague and incomplete and obtains from them a general mandate to carry out his policies, which he need not even wait to reveal to them as in the case of the Supreme Court.

Senators and members of the House under this theory are not representatives of their constituents in their respective States and congressional districts.

They are merely the instruments for carrying out the mandate which the people have given to the HEAD OF THE STATE.

It should have been clear to Democratic Senators and Representatives long ago that in legislation Congress is in partnership with the executive branch. The time to have said that any American leader was wrong it was last revealed.

Those who are in opposition to the President from carrying out his mandate from the people are considered as traitors to the mandate, and to the people.

He who is a traitor to the mandate is a traitor to the people.

Marry-Go-Round

—By HELEN ROWLAND—

THESE are the days when a man's imagination works overtime and his sense of direction goes on a strike, which is lucky for the girl who is looking for romance.

It doesn't take much to satisfy a woman; just one ardent, convincing proposal of marriage will sweeten her whole life. And, thank heaven, a man seldom tells the whole truth when he asks a girl to marry him.

He usually says: "Darling, kiss me! I love you. This is the REAL thing. I never felt like this about any woman before! Honestly! I'll do everything on earth to make you happy! I know I'm not perfect—but all that is over. I'll be a different man henceforth—I NEED you. You are everything in the world that I want! Oh, darling, sweetheart, baby, I can't live without you!" etc., etc., etc.

And when he says it he means it.

What of Today, Tomorrow?

Boston Surgeon Tells How to Prolong Life

In more ways, almost, than one can count, the young men and women of today are thoughtlessly endeavoring to shorten their lives, while medical science is attempting to lengthen them.

Yet with all the fast pace of modern existence, the medical end is winning out. Today, Dr. William H. Morrison, Boston City Hospital surgeon, draws the picture.

By PAUL WHELTON

Boston Evening American Staff Writer

Not only are the young people of 1933 unlike their parents and grandparents in their manner of eating and general living, but they have streamlined even the hours of sleeping.

Many of them, although they do not appear to realize it, are really working hard toward dropping years off their life span, in the view of Dr. William H. Morrison, the Boston City Hospital surgeon, who says:

"IN THE OLD DAYS, ONE WOULD BE GOING HOME AT ABOUT THE HOUR THAT THE YOUNG MEN AND WOMEN OF TODAY ARE JUST STARTING OUT. THEY REALLY DON'T GET ENOUGH SLEEP. AND LATE MEALS JUST BEFORE THEIR STRANGE BEDTIMES, DON'T AID.

"The younger generation eat irregularly. They gobble up their food, forever in a hurry. Thus they do not allow themselves time to digest what they wolf down. They drink to excess and they smoke to excess.

"None of this aids the stomach, and the result is ulcers.

"ULCERS OF THE STOMACH CASES HAVE INCREASED CONSIDERABLY OF LATE AND THIS IS ONE OF THE REASONS

THEY HAVE BECOME A SERIOUS PROBLEM TO THE PRESENT DAY PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.

"At City Hospital, this condition is up among the most serious in number and is now in a class with appendicitis and typhoid.

Through recent surveys we have discovered that of ulcers is a most prevalent condition, especially in the 30 and 40 years old.

"It does not follow that these ulcers formed during these years but it is just only that the ulcer was gained while the patient was living fast and impatiently during his youth.

"DUE TO THE ADVANCES OF MEDICAL SCIENCE, HOWEVER, PHYSICIANS NOW ARE ABLE TO DETECT THE PRESENCE OF ULCERS MUCH EARLIER THAN IN THE YEARS PAST, AND IMMEDIATE TREATMENT IS EFFECTING CURES WHERE, IN A PREVIOUS GENERATION, DEATH MIGHT HAVE RESULTED.

"If ulcer patients co-operate with their physicians and attend to their stomach ailments in time, and if the patients carry out the instructions and follow the proper rules of diet, they need have little worry.

"It is only in rare cases that surgery is necessary or that a patient does not respond to treatment prescribed.

"THE MOST VITAL RULE TO BE FOLLOWED BY THIS FAST-LIVING GENERATION IS THAT WHICH CALLS FOR MEALS AT REGULAR HOURS, AND NOT ANY OLD TIME OF DAY OR NIGHT, AND FOR CHWING THE FOOD WELL FOR PROPER DIGESTION.

"Late meals do not benefit any part of the complex human system, particularly the stomach.

"But what happens nowadays?

"Young couples go to a dance, after which they probably move on to a night club and remain there until 1 or 2 o'clock in the morning, eating and then drinking.

"After the night club they return to a home and eat some food. It is only a short time afterward that they return to their homes and go to bed, stomachs full.

"WHILE THE STOMACH SHOULD BE RESTING, IT IS WORKING HARD, DIGESTING THE MASS OF FOOD THAT HAS BEEN CRAMMED INTO IT, AND THEN, IN THE MORNING, THE STOMACH MUST BE READY TO TAKE CARE OF BREAKFAST. THE SUM AND RESULT IS LITTLE REST FOR THIS IMPORTANT ORGAN.

Thus, a young man or woman who is eating just as much food as any other part of the body.

"Of course, the stomach has never had the time to rest, and it is a matter of stomach health that is the most serious of all the ailments that a young man or woman can have.

"IF YOUNG PEOPLE WOULD ONLY STOP TO REALIZE THAT WHILE ULCERS COME EASY THEY ARE A HUNDRED TIMES HARDER TO GET RID OF, THEY MIGHT CUT DOWN THE NUMBER OF THEIR LIVES.

"Of course, if ulcers are not caused by the abuses which I have mentioned, and are hereditary, it is often responsible for some of them, but this is a fact which cannot be overlooked.

"For the most part, however, the majority of stomach ulcer cases are the result of a person's own carelessness, a heedlessness to be paid for eventually, and to be paid for with pain and suffering.

"I BELIEVE, NEVERTHELESS, THAT WITH THE RAPID ADVANCES BEING MADE IN MEDICAL SCIENCE, AND WITH THE CO-OPERATION OF THAT LARGER MAJORITY OF PRESENT DAY MEN AND WOMEN WHO HAVE COME TO REALIZE THAT PART OF THE BATTLE FOR HEALTH IS TAKING CARE OF ONE'S SELF, THE AVERAGE SPAN OF LIFE WILL STEADILY INCREASE.

(In the Boston Evening American tomorrow another leading physician will discuss the outlook for the young man entering the field of medicine.)

JAMAICA HEAD DIES

KINGSTON, Jamaica, June 1. (AP)—The head of a Jamaican, who was found in a boat in the harbor of Kingston, died today after having been in a coma since an operation Tuesday.

Priest Slaying Baffles Probe

CENTRALIA, Mo., June 3 (AP)—The unexplained killing of an elderly Catholic priest and the beating of his housekeeper in a night invasion of the rectory baffled police and county officers here today.

Father Thomas J. O'Connell, 65, was shot down as he stepped out of the rectory at 10:30 p.m. He was one of two priests who were in the rectory when the attack took place. The priest returned to his room and was found dead by a priest who was on duty at the time.

"I heard a shot," Miss Rice said hysterically. "The man I was struggling with struck me on the head and ran out the door." "He (Father O'Connell) raised his head and said, 'They got me. Then he was dead'."

Jail Beaten Man for Attack

Bandaged, both eyes blackened and bruised, a man was taken to the jail today after being beaten by a group of men in the streets of Centralia.

The man, who was identified as John J. O'Connell, was taken to the jail after being beaten by a group of men in the streets of Centralia.

Boston After Dark

By GEORGE HOLLAND

WITHIN TEN DAYS announcement of his candidacy for governor in the Democratic primaries will be made by former Governor James M. Curley . . . The official tossing of the Curley campaign hat in the ring is expected to take place at a meeting a week from Sunday of prominent Democrats of the western part of the state in Holyoke.

Phil Baker vice Alfred Lunt! . . . Here is an unusual piece of casting, which at first glance, probably caused many a drama editor to indulge in a restrained tee-hee . . . Comedian Baker will play the Lunt role in "Idiot's Delight" at the Cape Playhouse in Dennis this summer.

Baker's acting on the stage has been limited to the part of a clown in revues . . . In these choruses he has been a success . . . The idea of Phil Baker playing the role of an American ex-hooper, acquiring a "flash act" of his own, is not incongruous at all, after a moment's reflection . . . Your envy recalls that he expressed the opinion that Alfred Lunt, with his strange accent and familiar mannerisms, failed to do anything in the leading male role of "Idiot's Delight."

From the angle of type-casting, Baker, perhaps, fits the picture more neatly than the mainstay of the Theater Guild . . . The only question is—can Mr. Baker act . . . It's one item on the summer-theater bill-of-fare that your reporter intends not to miss.

Once Over Lightly:

Lillian Gish was gracious and lovely at a party for the members of the Star Wagon and representative of the press at the Sheraton Hotel after last night's performance . . . Burgess Meredith, sister with Miss Gish, was late in arriving, if he arrived at all . . . The explanation was that Actor Meredith, who is literate and a thinker, was working on the manuscript of a story he is writing for "Stage," the magazine . . . Editor Ruth Sedgewick, of "Stage," was in Boston Wednesday and pinned Mr. Meredith down to a deadline . . . The story will concern summer-theaters, in which Burgess (or "Burr") has had wide experience.

It was Miss Gish who informed this column that Miss Sedgewick is busy herself in doing an authorized biography of Katharine Cornell, the first of its kind . . . Miss Cornell, incidentally, is a resident of Massachusetts in the summertime . . . Soon she will establish herself at a villa "somewhere off the coast of Massachusetts" . . . A memory of Miss Cornell's famous press-agent, Ray Henderson, who was killed in an airplane crash in Europe a year ago, is the urgency with which Ray pleaded that the name of the island would be kept secret so that the star's privacy would not be invaded . . . So, with this corner, it will continue to be an island "somewhere off the coast of Massachusetts."

Chatter:

The announcement of the Howard Haines Murphy candidacy for Governor was a major political surprise . . . Lieutenant-Governor Kelly, questioned about the Murphy announcement, and the impending Curley candidacy, expressed his gratification at both developments . . . He thinks that the Kelly followers are groped firmly and will not stray from the fold . . . The Kelly campaign's early start is being rewarded by the display of "stickers" on the windshields of a multitude of automobiles . . . One car carrying a Kelly sticker was spotted in Medford Square, and the license-plate read "Florida 1-30-491" . . .

This column's suggestion that a race be provided for Massachusetts grand officers at Suffolk Downs met with immediate action . . . Stockholder Charles F. Adams has his racing secretary, Gene Bury, compiling a list of horses in training at present under the wing of Bay State owners . . .

Colin McLeod, who raced a stable at Florida the past winter, will enter a three-year-old in which he has high hopes, but which is barned at present at Delaware Park . . . D. J. Sullivan (His decision to ship his stable to Delaware Park caused considerable lamentation . . . The wealthy young Texan has made many Boston friends . . .

Mrs. Joseph F. Tomassello, widow of the contractor, was in real distress over the loss of a diamond pin, a gift to her husband from the King of Italy . . . Mary Morin, the youngest dancing teacher in the state, will host a festival June 15 at Brighton High School auditorium . . . Miss Morin is a first-year student in high school . . . Having won a ball game against the Engineers by the score of 12-8, the Boston American baseball club will treat itself to new uniforms . . . Bernice Daley, 12-year-old daughter of Police Captain James F. Daley, is one of the most promising all-around athletes of her sex in the state . . .

The annual Apple Convention will be held in Boston next year . . . In Colonial times, the levy to Great Britain was paid off by the apple crop of Governor's Island . . . Tony Shucro inscribes the back of a pretty postcard showing the Hyde Park Corner London, with this message: "I am popping the boys with my left hand!"

Never Bobbed Hair, Says Lillian Gish

LILLIAN GISH

ANN MARSTERS

By ANN MARSTERS

Probably the name "Lillian Gish" brings most quickly to your mind the fact that she was the fragile, pale-haired heroine of movie melodramas. And you may also pause to wonder what she is like now.

So we shall tell you how she appeared and what she said as we talked with her in her dressing room at the Shubert Theater after a performance of "The Star Wagon."

She is still small and dainty and amazingly young looking with the same wistful blue eyes, the same long golden hair which she wears pinned up in a soft roll.

"I am distinguished for two things," she said. "I've never bobbed my hair, and I have never been married."

Although, in the mind of the moment, the thought of her being married was not far from her mind, she said she was "intimately associated" with Hollywood in her own mind and in fact, first and last, a product of the theater.

"I began my stage career when I was five years old," she said, "and I was only 12 when I first became associated with D. W. Griffith. I was a movie star at 15—yet I have never felt that I belonged to Hollywood. I was always on the verge of returning to the stage. Each year I'd say, 'Well, next year I'll go back to the stage.' But it was the theater I loved, and always shall love."

There is a story of a woman who once was a huge actress to keep her head above water when she was having pecuniary losses, but she never owned a home in Hollywood. The "commuted" between Hollywood and her home in New York.

"And I did not bow down with the stage," she said. "I continued to appear in plays in Europe, and, fortunately, I didn't forget the technique of stage acting."

In the days of Lillian's stage career, her sister, Dorothy, was a trap for her mother's heart. Dorothy was

MR. BOSTON

Bowser Demanded } Forced Casey to Mat Showdown } Sign for Robert

—By JACK CONWAY

IT WAS PAUL BOWSER who forced big Steve Casey to sign to defend his world's heavyweight wrestling title against Yvon Robert at the Garden on June 14. Bowser was dissatisfied with the unsatisfactory ending of the last Casey-Robert tussle in which the Frenchman was disqualified by Referee Ted Tonneman, and he was anxious to have the big fellows definitely settle the question of supremacy.

Mr. Boston

Casey was not anxious to meet Robert in a return tussle at this time, and you cannot blame him. Yvon gave the Irishman the most terrific mat conflict of his career. Casey knows better than anybody else he was fortunate to leave the ring a victor.

Bowser was obliged to use considerable pressure on Casey to get him to accept the championship bout. Paul told big Steve that he would not feature him in another bout before he met Robert.

"I have received hundreds of letters from fans protesting Referee Ted Tonneman's ruling in favor of Casey over Robert," said Bowser. "Other fans have called me on the telephone and have made some rather hot remarks about Tonneman and Casey."

"I felt it would have been promotional suicide for me to have attempted to use Casey against any opponent other than Robert. I told this to Steve. The Irishman didn't want to meet Yvon again at this time. He was anxious to delay the match until late in the fall. I opposed any delay, and the bout was finally closed."

"I'll insist Casey and Robert battle to a decisive ending this time. I won't tolerate the referee disqualifying either wrestler. I am going to take this matter up with Jack Albright, manager of Casey, and Eddie Quinn, pilot of Robert, and I am sure they will agree that the tussle must be to an absolute finish even though the wrestlers do commit a few infractions of the rules."

Winning Ball Games at Home

WHILE "RIP" Valenti of the Goodwin Club is best known for his association with the boxing game, he is also a keen baseball fan. Boxing is Valenti's business, while baseball is his pleasure. Valenti has a sane explanation for the ability of the Red Sox to win more ball games at home than they do on the road.

"If you study the figures of all major league clubs you will find they win more games at home than they do on the road," said Valenti. "The answer is simple. Every club constructs its park to suit the hitting ability of its own players."

"Fenway Park, with its short leftfield fence, is perfect for hitters like Foss, Cronin, Vasmis, Chapman and Higgins. "The Yankee Stadium was built to help Babe Ruth get home runs. Any kind of a hit to right field goes into the stands for a home run."

"Lou Gehrig has benefited by the same condition that helped Ruth."

"National League Park is the nearest thing to a real ball park in either league. The batter isn't favored by trick fences or stands."

When Rogers Hornsby joined the old Braves the bleachers were moved in so that it would be easier for Rajah to get more home runs. The change helped Hornsby, but also worked to the advantage of other National League players. It was found that more enemy hitters than locals were knocking the agate into the short stands, and so they were pushed back to near their old location.

Random Shots at Target

THEY HAVE speeded up the running off of the races at Suffolk Downs since the horsemen protested against the long, tire-some post parade. . . . The eighth race yesterday was declared official a few seconds before 6 o'clock. . . . When the public realizes the races are going to be run off on schedule without unnecessary post delays, they will buy their mutual tickets early, and also get home to dinner at a reasonable hour.

Narragansett Park, with its live wire publicity department, has already started the ballyhoo for the summer meeting that gets underway on August 1. . . . Books for the various stake races at the Pawtucket, R. I., track have been distributed to the horsemen at Suffolk Downs.

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, June 3 (AP).—Great Britain's Walker Cup golfers, seeking their first victory in the international series begun in 1922, came off the St. Andrews Old Course at the end of today's inaugural Scotch foursomes matches holding a 2 to 1 lead over the United States trophy defenders.

The British team, captained by Johnnie Walker, defeated the Americans 2-1 in the foursomes matches. The British team consisted of Johnnie Walker, James Braid, and James Watson. The American team consisted of Sam Snead, Ben Hogan, and Sam Parks.

GOODMAN WOULD LOSE

Johnnie Goodman, New York pianist, is expected to lose a bet of $4,000 to $5,000 on the outcome of the Walker Cup golf tournament. Goodman is betting on the Americans to win.

Royalty 286 to Win National Open Title

Even a king can show expression when the occasion calls. Here we have Charlie Yates, British amateur champion, making an approach shot with an iron in the title tilt. Charles apparently put everything into the swing, judging from the expression.

Gave me a fair right now, said the tall, deep-chested professional, and I wouldn't shoot a stroke.

I can't see that at all," Guildahl said emphatically. "This course is just too much of a test for any great streaks of underpar scoring. It plays short, some of the holes absurdly short, but a 71 out here is real shooting."

"Then you think they won't break your record of 287?" a reporter asked.

"To me money on it," Guildahl said. "A 286 is good enough to win."

James H. Hays, who is in charge of the tournament, said that he expected the record to be broken.

Pastor to Fight McCoy Here June 20

10-Round Battle At Garden

Bob Pastor of New York, who went the distance with Joe Louis, was matched today to meet Al McCoy, New England heavyweight champion, in a 10-round bout at the Boston Garden on June 20 under the direction of the Goodwin A. C.

It will be Pastor's first ring appearance in Boston.

The match was closed during a long distant telephone conversation between Jimmy Johnston, manager of Pastor, and Matchmaker "Rip" Valenti of the Goodwin Club.

BOB PASTOR

Pastor recently returned east from California where he won three bouts.

McCoy has been training at Lou Stillman's gym in New York under the direction of Ray Arcel for a 10-round bout with Hans Hawerick, Hungarian heavyweight champion, that will be held in Montreal on June 9.

SWEEPS G. B. CLASSICS

EPSON, Eng., June 3 (AP)—Sir Hugo Cunliffe-Owen's Rockfel completed a sweep of Great Britain's classics for three-year-old fillies today by winning the 160th running of the Oaks. Rockfel also won the One Thousand Guineas, run at Newmarket in April.

Why Charlie Gehringer Is Tops

NEW YORK, June 3 (INS)—Hey, Mr. Ripley! Did you ever see a second baseman back up a centerfielder and get an assist for the pitcher on the play?

Well, it happened in the night-cap game at the Stadium between the Tigers and Yanks, with Charlie Gehringer making the freak play. Myrl Hoag had cut a looper in short center in the second inning.

Dixie Walker raced in for it, Gehringer raced out. Walker called for the ball and missed an attempted stealing catch. The ball went through him, but Gehringer, backing up, tossed out Hoag, who was trying for second.

Road Links Barrier to Indians

NEW YORK, June 3 (INS)—Out Cleveland way there's a fresh epidemic of pennant fever today and for a change, the hopes of the Indians' followers seem well founded.

For years the Indians have been killers at home and pennant contenders as long as they have fallen under the assault of the Tribe in their own ballpark. But on the road it has been a different story—adding up to the fact that Cleveland has not had a pennant winner since Tris Speaker's team of 1920 won the American League hunting and went on to take the World Series.

Oscar Vitt has put new zest into the Indians of 1938. His handling of the team is showing results. Look at Earl Averill and Hal Trosky topping the American League batters. Then Averill and Rookie Ken Keltner are up with the leaders in the matter of homers. Averill with seven and Ken with eight.

Eddy Zeller and Johnny Allen, with six wins each, are pressing the leaders in pitching. It all means that the Indians are headed for a flag. If they can overcome the old road jinx.

Rockfel Wins English Classic

EPSON, Eng., June 3 (INS)—Sir Hugo Cunliffe-Owen's Rockfel, the favorite, today won the 160th running of the Oaks, flat race classic for fillies. Radiant was second and Solar Firey third. Fourteen ran. King George and Queen Elizabeth were among the big throng of spectators.

Bride of Fairways

Horton Smith, one of the nation's top flight golfers, combined golf and good looks to win himself an heiress, Miss Barbara Bourne, daughter of Alfred Bourne, sewing machine king. Their engagement has been announced. Miss Barbara is a pretty fine golfer, and the couple met while Horton was engaged in one of his many tournaments.

Huskies Hold Pole Position In Regatta

NEW YORK, June 3 (AP)—The battle lines are drawn for the Poughkeepsie regatta with Washington's Huskies defending their national titles in lanes No. 2, 3 and 4 in the varsity, junior varsity and freshman races.

The Huskies are placed in advantageous positions for all three races as the middle lanes are generally considered the fastest over the Hudson course. The Columbia drew the No. 3 lane in all three races yesterday and it was recalled the Huskies swept the river in this lane last year.

The complete draw: Varsity race—No. 1 lane, Wisconsin; No. 2, Washington; No. 3, Columbia; No. 4, California; No. 5, Cornell; No. 6, Syracuse; No. 7, Navy.

Junior varsity race—No. 1, Navy; No. 2, Cornell; No. 3, Columbia; No. 4, California; No. 5, Washington; No. 6, Syracuse.

Freshman race—No. 1 lane open; No. 2, Cornell; No. 3, Columbia; No. 4, Washington; No. 5, Syracuse; No. 6, California.

The fleet of 18 compares favorably in numbers and strength with any since the regatta was renewed after a one-year gap in 1934. There were 17 boats that year, 14 in 1935, 18 in 1936 and 16 last year.

There is little doubt that the Eastern varsity eight is better than last year. Navy, beaten only by Harvard, and with a wealth of material tops the group. Cornell has tremendous power at its command and should have it under control by race day. Syracuse improved steadily in the sprint season and Columbia was impressive in its last race against Harvard. Washington, of course, is strong, and it is the opinion on the Coast that Ky Ebright's California crew has improved greatly since it lost to the Huskies in April. Wisconsin should do better than in 1937.

Plunging Art Rooney Heads for Aqueduct

Mike Jacobs Has Corner on Three World's Boxing Titles

NEW YORK, June 3 (AP)—That romance between Gaffer Horton Smith and Barbara Bourne, the sewing machine heiress, began at Augusta the year Smith won the Masters Tournament.

Sad news for the bookies: Mr. Art Rooney, the "Pittsburgh plunger," is reported heading east for the Aqueduct meeting next week and expects to have that $15,000 guarantee for "Whizzer" White in his pocket before the start of the fourth race on the opening day.

Ed Flowers, lanky captain of Michigan State's golf team, ironed out those greens with No. 13 shoes. Harry Long, pro at the Cherry Hills Club, Denver, where the National Open will be played, thinks the course is made to order for Harry Cooper. . . . Long says the par 4, 470-yard 14th hole will give the boys the most trouble.

The word is out along the Gownus that unless Burleigh Grimes can produce, his days as the Dodger pilot are numbered. . . . wonder what odds Jack Doyle would lay against a subway World Series right now?

DEADLINE JUNE 15

Joe Jacobs has been at Max Schmeling's Speculator Camp so long he can hardly read by electric light on his infrequent visits to Broadway. . . . Deadline for major league trading falls on June 15. . . . Rumor has it the national golf links at Southampton, L. I., one of the oldest in the country, will be the site of the 1940 Walker Cup matches and that an eastern layout will get the 1939 open.

To date Al Schacht, the baseball clown, has broken five seasons and four all-time attendance records at his St. Louis Interland. . . . Marquette and Minnesota romped through a dual meet the other day in an hour and 15 minutes.

HOT PRESS BOX

The Glants are building a glass-enclosed, steam-heated press box for football writers at the Polo Grounds. . . . Just like those dreams we've been hearing about from the Midwest.

Mike Jacobs now has the heavyweight, welterweight and featherweight champions and may put another egg—the lightweight title—in his basket before the summer is over. . . . Also, they say John Henry Lewis, king of the light-heavies, is simply itching for the royal summons to the Hippodrome.

Protest, Peters, former Illinois drop kick star and later in the National Pro League, is umpiring in the Florida State League and doing all right.

Sports Mirror

By the Associated Press
Today a Year Ago—Heavyweight Champion James J. Braddock and his manager, Jack (Gold) Clark, sued and filed $1000 for failure to go through with contract to box Max Baer.

Three years Ago—Helen Wills Moody, in her match of comeback campaign abroad, easily defeated Dilly Nottley, 6-1, 6-0, in London.

Five years Ago—Equipeux won Metropolitan Handicap at Belmont Park for second straight year.

NO FINER COCKTAIL RUM IN THE WORLD

Now priced 40% to 50% less than imported rums

In the opinion of professional experts there is no other cocktail rum in the world than Caldwell's Clipper Rum. It costs you less because you pay no export duties or long distance freight charges.

Caldwell's Rum is a "Collector's" rum. It is a "Fancier's" rum. It is a "Smooth" rum. It is a "Wonderful" rum.

Schmeling's Right As Lethal as Ever

SPECULATOR, N. Y., June 3 (AP)—Max Schmeling boxed six rounds here for the first time since he began preparations for his heavyweight title match with Joe Louis June 22.

A crowd of 1000 saw the German challenger deal out impartial punishment to Joe Judge, Joe Mack and Elio, Roger Schmeling's right hand looked as good as ever.

Cotton's Predictions Stir U. S. Cup Team

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, June 3 (AP)—That handsome, stubborn man way out on the limb today is hilarious Henry Cotton.

He is willing in fact he insists—on risking his reputation as a golf critic on his opinion that Great Britain will beat the United States in the Walker Cup matches and that Jim Bruen will beat Johnny Goodman or whomever he meets.

Cotton made this prediction: "I originally said Bruen right now could beat Goodman 3 and 6," Henry admitted. "Maybe that 3 and 6 wasn't fair, but I'm thoroughly convinced he can beat Goodman or any other man on the United States team."

"I believe Goodman is a great player. I certainly have the highest opinion of American golf. But I tell you I've never seen a boy play golf like this boy Bruen. When I played safely he played for glory and made it. I don't care whom you want to name, there's never been a player at his age able to hit this shot like this boy can hit."

Henry admits Bruen is no stylist. "He's a looper. Some day it probably will get him into trouble, but it won't be this week. You can count on that."

Freddy Haas inadvertently showed this prediction to Goodman today. It was the talk of the American team before it went out to play the foursomes. Goodman just laughed and said, "Well, maybe he's right."

Now all that remains is for Goodman and Bruen to play each other in the singles. The captains looked over their players today and are scheduled to pick the singles line-ups tonight.

Derby Winner OF '26 Dies

LEXINGTON, Ky., June 3 (AP)—Bubbling Over, the second Kentucky Derby winner to sire a Derby champion, was found dead in his stall at Colonel E. R. Bradley's Idle Hour farm near here. Winner of the 1926 Derby, Bubbling Over raced only two years before he was retired to stud. In those two years—1925-26, he started 13 times and finished in the money each time, earning $78,592. He was the chestnut son of North Star III and Beaming Beauty by Sweep. In the 1929 Derby, Bubbling Over finished five lengths ahead of his stablemate, Bagenbaggage.

Adams High With 101 Winners

Johnny Adams, the cowboy of the Western plains, has something on the riding game. He is breezing along in front leading all the crack jockeys by a wide margin with 101 winning mounts to his credit so far this year, eight of them in the last week. Johnny Longden is the nearest to the Western rider, with 85, and Eddie Arcaro, up on Lawrin, the Derby winner, is third with 83.

By the Associated Press

It is doubtful if the Coaching Club American Oaks at Belmont ever had a queerer running than the 21st renewal. Only three entries, Creole Maid, Handcuff and Gulf Breeze entered the mile and three furlongs feature for fillies. Creole Maid, which won by four lengths over Handcuff, the favorite.

Hirsch Jacobs has gained a good head over his rival trainers in the race for national honors. The popular trainer has saddled 54 winners to date, leading A. E. Alexanders and Ben Jones, who are tied with 37 each; H. O. Bodwell, who has 36, and T. Hoving, who has 22.

The Foxcatcher Farms' Dauber, winner of the Preakness and second in the Kentucky Derby, will make a stern bid for the $50,000 Belmont Stakes. The son of Pennant bred over the mile and a half course in 2:33.25 recently under plenty of weight.

Sammy Fullam, an 18-year-old Washington jockey who never had won a race, and Mrs. M. S. Foxe, highly regarded Bertillon were a winning combination at Agawam, yesterday. Bertillon paid $17.50 to win the mile feature over an even longer shot, Brunetta, which paid $58.40 in place. The failure of William H. Henshaw's Memoirs had a lot to do with the long shots' showing, however. Memoirs pulled up lame after making a threatening move at the turn.

Absconder always at home on the Detroit Fair Grounds course, took his second race of the meeting there yesterday, winning the mile and a sixteenth feature over Mrs. T. Stevenson's Javonocha with Elwood third.

Lawyer Surrenders In $700,000 Larceny

Killer's Victim —Body of attractive Mrs. Laura Krenrich was found stuffed into cedar chest in closet of her Syracuse, N. Y., home. Police are hunting a Larry Gassney, alias Gough, who had been living at her home. (Story on Page 8.)

Business Boom Due Says Ford

DETROIT, June 3 (AP) —In his first statement on public affairs since he returned from a recent White House visit, Henry Ford said in an interview today that nothing has happened to change his conviction that "we are going to have the greatest era of prosperity we have ever known."

Ford sat astride a bench in the mess hall of a boys' farm camp near his home in Dearborn, and, pointing toward nearly 300 acres under cultivation by the young farmers, said:

"And it will come through a Continued on Page 23, Column 4

Solomont Held on N.Y. Indictment

Charged with larceny of $700,000 in connection with New York's alleged $16,000,000 investment trust swindle, S. Leo Solomont of Newton Center, a Milk street attorney, surrendered to police today and was arraigned in municipal court as a fugitive from justice.

Judge Elijah Adlow held Solomont in $5000 bail for a hearing a week from today. Bail was furnished.

Just after Solomont's release, Boston police received a telegram from Dewey's office, asking that bail for Solomont be fixed at "not less than $25,000."

Solomont is the third Boston lawyer to be arrested on indictments obtained by District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey, New York racket buster.

Browns, Red Sox Game Postponed

The Red Sox and the St. Louis Browns were blanked by the weatherman today, and the final game of the series was cancelled. Detroit opens a three-day stay with the locals tomorrow, with Lefty Grove the opening hurler.

British Golfers Lead U. S. in Cup Play, 2 to 1

ST. ANDREWS, June 3 (INS) —Aided by their familiarity with the difficult St. Andrews course, a team of crack British golfers took a 2 to 1 lead over the United States in the Walker Cup tournament today.

One of the day's four foursomes was halved and half-points are not awarded for drawn matches in Walker Cup play. The results of the 36-hole matches follow:

Charlie Yates and Ray Billows, U. S., defeated Alex Kyle and Charles Stowe, Britain, 3 and 2. Gordon Peters and Hector Thomson, Britain, defeated Johnny Goodman and Marvin Ward, U. S., 4 and 2.

Leonard Crawley and Frank Pennink, Eng., defeated Reynolds Smith and Fred Haas, Jr., U. S., 2 and 1.

Johnny Fischer and Charles Koestis, U. S., halved with Harry Bentley and James Bruen, Britain.

It's Baby Girl For Parkmans

Mrs. Doris Parkman, Jr., wife of Corporation Counsel Henry Parkman, Jr., gave birth to a 9-pound daughter today at Wyman House, Cambridge Hospital.

The child is the couple's second. A boy was born in 1936. Physicians said mother and daughter are "doing nicely."

Mrs. Parkman was the former Mrs. Doris Leamy, of New Rochelle, N. Y., and married Parkman when he was Republican state senator. She is the widow of the late Hugh Leamy, magazine editor.

Schuschnigg Wed by Proxy

VIENNA, June 3 (AP) — The marriage of Kurt Schuschnigg, former chancellor of Austria, and Countess Vera Fugger von Babenhausen, with the absent bridegroom represented by his brother as proxy, was reported today by a usually reliable informant.

Dr. Arthur Schuschnigg took the place of his brother, detained by the Nazi authorities since Germany's absorption of Austria, March 13.
